

Please help keep the existing plan. It is frustrating enough to get those phone calls from telemarketers that sneak in and by-pass regulations as "unknown" callers and have no guilt/conscious in bothering you literally day or night! I would greatly appreciate it if you as representatives of the public voice tell those wanting to change the existing law "NO", and if they still pursue remind them that these needless, annoying and frustrating calls will also be allowed to frequent their own homes!